NOTICE.—To Subscribers.—When a red cross-mark appears on the margin of your paper it is placed there to notify you that your subscription has expired. If you desire the paper to be discontinued notify us of the fact immediately; otherwise it will be continued at your expense.

Persons who have the paper brought to them by the carrier, and who are monthly subscribers, are hereby notified that hereafter no subscription will be received for a less time than six months, payable in advance.

M. C. R. R.—Trains pass Bolivar as follows: Passenger train, south, 3:00 P. M.; passenger train, north 11 o'clock at night.

COUNTERMANDER.—The call for a meeting of the stockholders in the M. C. R. R., and which was to take place on the 23d inst., has been countermanded. See notice in another column.

NUNN.—A man by the name of Nunn, David Nunn, we believe, of Haywood, has been nominated by the Rada, as their choice for Congressman from this District. Of course he will "get none votes." Alas, poor Schuyler!

COMMERCIAL.—Liverpool, April 17—cotton closed extremely heavy, uplands 114 and tending downwards. New York 18 1/2, middlings 27c and very dull; gold 136. Memphis, April 18—middlings 24 1/2 and 25 and dull; gold 34 buying.

P. F. Wilkinson. It will be seen from a disquisition notice in another column, has become sole proprietor of the store heretofore owned by Gray & Wilkinson. T. Sherwood's old stand. He will give you excellent bargains, as he is determined not to be undersold by any house in this place.

LARGE STOCK.—The public are hereby notified that Fleming, Usery & Co. have just received a large and varied stock of ready-made clothing, hats, caps, bonnets, notions, etc. The ladies should call and examine these exquisite ornaments for the head. Spring styles! Think of that; and O, so cheap!

CANDIDATES.—Hon. Emerson Etheridge having been unanimously nominated by the Conservative Convention, as the standard-bearer of those who are opposed to tyranny and the Brownlow dynasty, we hoist his colors at the head of this column. The Hon. J. W. Leftwich is also announced as a candidate for Congress from this district. More anon.

Sadler & Halbert, house, sign and ornamental painters and paper hangers, are now prepared to execute, in a superior style, all work entrusted to them. This is a new feature in Bolivar, and as the gentlemen are proficient in their profession, and propose to work at reasonable rates, they should be encouraged. Patronize home enterprise. There is no use in sending orders from home.

DR. LEFTWICH'S ANNOUNCEMENT.—Mr. Editor: Please announce me as a candidate for reelection to Congress, with the written Constitution and the unqualified Johnson as my platform of principles, which will be more clearly defined in my forthcoming "Circular Address," and a personal interview prior to the election.

BARGAINS.—The undersigned take this method of informing the public that they are now offering their stock of goods at very reduced prices. Having made a change in partnership, we desire to change our business to some extent. We will sell great bargains, being anxious to realize on our goods as rapidly as possible. And to those who owe us on last year's business we would say, that we are needing the money very badly, and request them to come forward and settle. If they cannot pay all pay part. Doubtless like us they have experienced that a "half loaf" is better than no bread. In short, we need all the money that is due us, if it is possible to get it; if not, all that we can get.

Very respectfully,
HARRINGTON & CO.

VISIT TO FRANKLIN.—Last Tuesday fourteen years ago, we left the green fields and sunny hill-tops of old Williamson to mingle in the din and dust of busy Nashville. The anniversary day referred to, we spent in the little city of Franklin, with our old and highly esteemed acquaintances. Most pleasantly did the hours pass. In the evening, in company with one "whose bright smile haunts me still," we visited the battle-field and the McGavock cemetery, where are collected the ashes of near fifteen hundred of our hero dead, all of whom met their fate on the day that Cleburne's star faded and went down. The cemetery is neatly inclosed, but presents a cramped appearance. It is only a few hundred yards south-east of the spot on which the heavy fighting took place. At least one-half of the graves are marked with that mournful word "Unknown," and as we silently gazed upon the little mounds, we could but breathe a prayer for the lonely hearts far away that spoke their sorrow through straining eyes filled with the dew of memory. As we turned from right to left, and saw, within this little lot, and read the names of the representative dead from almost every State in the South, we endeavored to picture the awful scene in which they yielded up the ghost. Richly will it repay one to visit this memorable spot, for it is thickly strewn with the mournful beauties of the past. We learn that a splendid iron fence is to be put around the entire cemetery at an early day.

FIRE.—The dwelling house, kitchen and smoke house of Mrs. A. G. Barnett, living four miles northeast of this place, was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. We understand that few articles of clothing or furniture were saved. The fire originated in the kitchen and was accidental.

—Ripley Advertiser, 6th.

Two companies of U. S. troops (white) have been stationed at Hambolt.

BEAUTIFUL PRESENT.—We have seen a beautiful present that was sent from Middle Tennessee to one of our most esteemed fellow citizens. It is a highly finished battle-axe, out from off the memorable battle-field of Franklin, and bears this inscription: "Battlefield of Franklin, To J. H. Bills by James Allison, 1867." It will, no doubt, be handed down for years to come as a memento of one of the fiercest conflicts that ever took place on American soil, and the sight of the token will never fail to call up memories of the loved and lost, for it grew upon the ground that drank the vital tide of the lamented Cleburne, and over four hundred of his lion-hearted comrades in arms.

MEMPHIS BUSINESS NOTICES

CLOTHING.—For fine clothing and furnishings, go to J. H. Waggoner & Co.'s, Clark's marble block. They are first class merchants, and sell goods at wholesale or retail.

LIGHT.—If you want a cheap, neat and beautiful light, go to Blood & Co.'s, 40 and 40 1/2 Monroe street. They deal in oils, lamps, lanterns, stoves, zinc, lead and tin-ware.

DAY.—We speak by the card when we say that Prof. Y. Day is the artist of Memphis. His rooms are at the corner of Union and Main streets. If you desire life-like pictures patronize him—his prices are low and uniform.

WEATHERBERG.—In the rear of the Senate building, Jefferson street, between Main and Second, is located Harry Weatherberg's gem of a saloon. His wines and liquors are all of the purest and best brands.

TONSORIAL.—When you visit Memphis, be sure to call on Joseph Lory; you will find him at his Excelsior saloon in the Wortham House. He is the leader of the fashion.

HARDWARE.—Chorbe & Co., at No. 232 Front street, deal in hardware of all kinds, stoves, plows, farming implements, tin-ware, etc., and sell at northern prices.

One of the Beauties of War—A Horrible Picture.—As a sample of Yankee inhumanity, the Cairo Democrat thus discourses on the removal of Federal dead in that city:

The contractors allege (what is doubtless true) that the contract under which they are operating makes no provision for refilling the graves, or for the removal of the putrid flesh and liquid corruption that may ooze through or become attached to the debris of the old coffin. Under no obligation to perform this additional and disagreeable labor, they peremptorily refuse to perform it. Parties who have visited the graveyard where the contractors are now operating, describe the scene as most loathsome, sickening and horrible. Many of the coffins fall to pieces while being raised out of the graves, and their putrid contents become, necessarily, scattered. Sloughed flesh, hair, fragments of clothing and masses of stinking putridity fall here and there, and are suffered to remain. The graves are left yawning, some of them containing portions of rotting coffins, and the whole scene is too horrible for description.

The Columbia Herald of the 13th contains the following:

As a worthy colored man living in the edge of town, without money, yesterday morning he found his dog in possession of part of a new born babe—the legs, one arm and part of the body being missing. He was considerably astonished and somewhat frightened at the discovery. After calling several colored neighbors to look at it, he concluded, by advice to bury it. The occurrence coming to the ears of Coroner Wood, however, a jury of inquest was called, and the body exhumed and examined. It was very much mutilated, with the skull broken and bearing every evidence of being killed. The jury could only find as to the fact of the death and had no means of ascertaining how it occurred. There was considerable difference of opinion as to whether the child was white or mulatto.

Poor Barnum.—A Radical exchange in speaking of the defeat of P. T. Barnum, the sideshowman, in the recent Connecticut election, says:

"The defeat of Barnum destroys all our most ardently cherished hopes of the organization of a 'happy family' in Congress. He might have caged Butler, the jockey; Schenck, the race horse; Stevens, the hyena; and other Congressional animals. But this field for Barnum's usefulness is closed against him, and he must go to the ignominious exhibition of a bearded woman, intelligent seals, sagacious mice and California bears. Or if he wears of this trend mill of the Jarley family, he may try his hand at another exhibition of gigantic bull force, like that which produced such a sensation and terrible bellevue in New York during the fall of 1865."

Boy Murder at Somerville.—A sad affair occurred in the town of Somerville on Saturday evening. Two young men named Derris O. Moseley and John Reeves were playing, when they quarreled and commenced fighting, the affair being ended by the former drawing a pistol and shooting the latter. The ball entering the abdomen of the unfortunate boy, and he survived but a few moments. The affair caused a marked sensation in the community. The murdered boy is a son of Judge Reeves. The frequent serious results from carrying firearms should impel all good citizens to frown down the pernicious practice of carrying them, and cause our lawmakers to provide severe punishments for all persons guilty of carrying deadly weapons. Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false tresses, your switches, your wig—destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig. Come, and see some youthful curls, soft and fair, and rejoice in your own restored hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the hair to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations. If your Druggist does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, post-paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given.
